Find the right community interpreting course for you

Certificate in Community Interpreting Level 2

Fluent in your native language, completed the Introduction to Community Interpreting course and/or have some experience in interpreting with a good level of English (Level 1 Functional Skills)

Functional Skills English

Improve your English language skills so you are ready for the Level 2 or 3 qualification in Interpreting

Volunteering to get work experience

You will be expected to do some interpreting work while studying on the Level 2 and Level 3 courses, helping other adult learners, children in schools or in your own community

Certificate in Community Interpreting Level 3

Fluent in your native language, completed Level 2 Community Interpreting and/or have very good experience in interpreting with a good level of English (Level 2 Functional Skills)

Employment

Become a community interpreter. You can register with interpreting agencies to get part-time employment after you complete a Level 3 course

Further Study

(e.g. Diploma in Public Service Interpreting)

Completed and passed Community Interpreting Level 3