

Find the right maths course for you

Our aim is to prepare you for practical everyday life and work activities while supporting you with your wellbeing.

Our courses will help you develop your:

- maths skills with and without a calculator
- social and employability skills
- digital skills – all courses will include some online classes

