Statement of significance/ Reasons for designation

Architectural: Circa 18th century four bay timber framed barn, weather boarded with roof of old tiles. Queen strut roof trusses on arch- braced tie beams. Timbers saw cut, fairly close set but, apart from main posts, thin scantlings. Further building of similar construction runs west from north end of barn. This has now been lined with breeze blocks and plastered inside. The original barn included is to the rear of the building shown in the photograph.

Townscape: Group Value; Key building on the water front.
