Statement of significance/
Reasons for designation

Architectural: Semi detached pair of 1836, two and a half storeys, each two windows wide, in red brick with rendered quoins. Very high pitched roofs, in machine tiles with large paired gables across front. End and centre chimneys. Decorative barge boards to gables. Multi paned casement windows, now in UPVC, under stone hood moulds. Extended considerably to the rear.

Townscape: Included for picturesque quality on the Green, key landmark, contributes to local character.
