Elevation fronting Church Road

Elevation fronting St Mary's Road

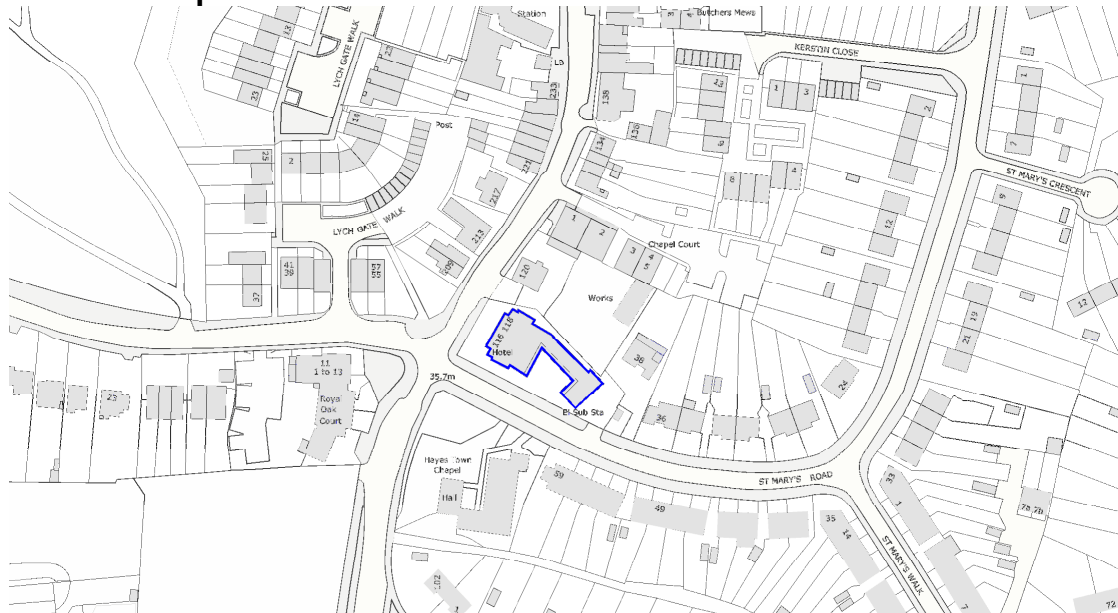

Statement of significance/ Reasons for designation

Architectural: Altered late 19th early 20th century former school. Brick façade fronting Church road with projecting double gable. Arched headed ground floor windows, flat arches over first floor windows with hood moulds and brick cills. Steep tiled roof. Elevation fronting St Mary's Road partly rendered. 1930s extension in stock brick with a ground floor loggia.

Historic: The building was formerly a school where writer George Orwell lived and taught. The Blue plaque (Inset) by Hayes Literary Society reads: George Orwell (Eric Arthur Blair) 1903-1950 lived and worked here as Senior Master of the former Hawthorns High School for boys. April 1932- July 1933.
