Statement of significance/ Reasons for designation

Architectural: Early mid C19 pair, each two storeys, two windows, with set back one-window entrance extensions. Stock brick. Hipped slated roof. Gauged brick arches to original windows, now replaced, those on ground floor round headed. Stucco entablature surround to modern doors. No 897 has one window altered to glass door and a long one-storey porch and garage extension at right.

Townscape: Contributes to local character. Few of the oldest surviving Heath villas from the old hamlet of Hayes End.
