Statement of significance/ Reasons for designation

Architectural: Mid 19th century 3 bay two storey house with a projecting wing to the east. White rendered with shallow hipped slate roof. Windows now boarded. In poor condition. The building is to be retained as part of a new development approved by the Council in June 2012.

Townscape: Group value with the listed canal bridge and located in the Bull's Bridge Conservation Area; key landmark on the canal.

Historic: Associated with the Grand Union Canal/ Paddington Arm and located close to an infilled wharf. The Bull's Bridge junction was an important stopping off point at the heart of the system, where bargees waited for their orders.
