Statement of significance/ Reasons for designation

Architectural: Mid 18th century house with later alterations and extensions. Two storeys, attic and basement, (which is a full storey at the back), four windows wide. Slated roof with eaves soffit, two later sloped dormers and two wide chimney stacks with 19th century pots. Stock brick. Segmental arches to windows, modern casements on first floor, and sashes to ground floor. Along front a Victorian trellised loggia with swept roof of fish-scale slates. Late 19th century back right addition.

Townscape: Contributes to local character.
